Charles Albert Knox

Charles Albert (Allie) Knox, 63, of 204 5th Ave. N. E., Aberdeen, died in his home Sunday evening, following a long illness.

Services will be at 2:00 p. m., on Thursday in the Bethlehem Lutheran church at Aberdeen. The Rev. E. W. Nervig will officiate. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Knox was born June 4, 1893, in Brown County and lived in Aberdeen for a time where he attended Central High School and Northern State Teachers College.

On October 26, 1916, he married Bertha Paepke and they made their home on a farm near Stratford, retiring from the farm in 1939 and moving to Aberdeen where Mr. Knox was employed by the K. O. Lee Co.

Mr. Knox was a member of the Bethlehem Lutheran church and Elks lodge. He was well and favorably known in the Groton area and has a host of friends here who regret his departure.

Survivors include his widow, his step-mother, Mrs. George Knox of Santa Monica, Calif., and a brother, R. R. Knox of Stratford.
